Déposer ma candidature

Un candidat ne se présente qu'à un seul poste. Le dossier est déposé en ligne ; les droits de candidature sont payés en espèces auprès des membres désignés de la Commission ou par InstaPay, et un reçu vous est remis. Les pièces restent confidentielles et ne sont jamais publiées.

Candidature unique à un poste : le bulletin propose « Pour », « Contre » ou blanc ; le candidat n'est élu que s'il obtient plus de 50 % des votants de ce poste. À défaut, le poste est déclaré vacant : la Commission rouvre les candidatures et organise une nouvelle élection pour ce poste dans les 30 jours (Art. XIX).

1 The 4 positions to fill

Single-member, first-past-the-post vote in one round. The elected President of the Executive Bureau appoints the other members of their bureau; the elected President of the Committee appoints at least five members of the Committee (resolutions R1 and R2).

Position	Candidacy fee (non-refundable)
President of the Executive Bureau	5,000 EGP
Treasurer	3,000 EGP
Auditor	2,000 EGP
President of the Committee	2,500 EGP

The fees (R3) are paid in cash to the designated members of the Commission, or by InstaPay; you are given a numbered receipt. They are used only to organise the elections.

2 Conditions to be a candidate

Conditions proposed by resolution R9 (and R5 for age), submitted to the Extraordinary General Assembly. They take up Article VII of the 2022 statutes, extend it to the four elected positions and make it more precise. You must meet all of them on the date you submit your file.

- be at least 21 years old on the date of submission (R5);
- be an active member of FACAMEG;
- have Cameroonian nationality;
- have lived in Egypt for at least 1 year on the date of submission;
- hold a valid Egyptian residence permit;
- hold a valid consular card;
- hold a Cameroonian passport valid for at least 6 months;
- not sit on the Transition Committee or on the Transition Bureau and Electoral Commission (resign from the Committee at the latest when you submit);
- stand for only one position and pay the candidacy fee (R3).

Position	Additional conditions
President of the Executive Bureau	Lease contract in your name or in your spouse's name.
Treasurer	Home address in Egypt (the lease does not have to be in your name).
Auditor	Home address in Egypt (the lease does not have to be in your name).
President of the Committee	10 years of residence in Egypt; lease contract in your name; sworn statement that you are married or in a couple.

If the EGA does not adopt R9, only the conditions of Article VII of 2022 apply (adult, good character, 1 year of residence, passport valid for 6 months, residence permit, active member, not sitting on the transition committee): the Commission will publish this and update the online file. The rule of 80% attendance at general assemblies is not applied in 2026 (R4).

3 The documents to prepare

Accepted formats: PDF, JPG or PNG, 5 MB maximum per file. The documents stay confidential: they are never published.

Document	For whom
Identity page of the Cameroonian passport (valid for 6 months)	Everyone
Valid consular card (front and back)	Everyone
Valid Egyptian residence permit (front and back)	Everyone
Head-and-shoulders ID photo, light background (shown on the ballot)	Everyone
Receipt for the candidacy fee	Everyone
Lease contract in your name or in your spouse's name	President of the Executive Bureau
Lease contract in your name + sworn statement (tick box)	President of the Committee
Programme or statement of intent (PDF), published on your profile	Optional

4 Submit your candidacy step by step

Everything is done online, from Run for office (Members area menu or the "Run for office" tile in My space).

- 1 Read the File my candidacy page: role of each position, conditions, documents and fees.
- 2 Open your file: enter your e-mail, then the 6-digit code you receive (name, phone and e-mail must match your member record).
- 3 Choose your position (only one).
- 4 Upload your documents and your photo; check that they are readable and valid.
- 5 Choose the colour of your ballot: a colour already taken for your position is greyed out.
- 6 Submit: you receive an acknowledgement of receipt by e-mail; your file moves to the status "Submitted".

Closing time: Saturday 7 November 2026 at 11:59 pm. A file not submitted by then can no longer be submitted.

File my candidacy

5 Following your file

The status of your file is shown in your candidate space; you are told about each change by e-mail.

Status	Meaning
Draft	File started, not submitted.
Submitted	Received by the Commission.
Under review	Checking of conditions and documents (8 → 10 November).
To be completed	A document is missing or unreadable: the message tells you what to do, before the provisional list.
Accepted	You are on the list of candidates; your colour is locked.
Rejected	The reason is given; you can appeal on 11 and 12 November.

Appeals: in writing and with reasons, sent to the Commission on 11 and 12 November. The final list of candidates is published on 13 November.

6 The campaign

From 14 November to 10 December (11:59 pm). 11 December is a day of election silence.

- Your public profile shows your photo, your colour, your position and your programme.
- Your colour is used on the ballot, the posters and the results table, always with your photo and your name.
- Respect the members: no pressure on a voter, no asking for codes, no “assisted voting” on your phone.

Asking a voter for their code, or voting in their place on your device, is fraud: the Commission can cancel the votes concerned and refer the matter to the Committee.

7 Your observers

Each candidate can appoint one or more observers. Their account, created by the Commission, lets them monitor the vote as in a polling station, without ever seeing how voters voted.

- 1 Give the Commission the name, e-mail and phone number of your observer (before 21 November, so they can take part in the trial vote).
- 2 The Commission creates their account, linked to your candidacy; they receive an activation link by e-mail.
- 3 On voting day, they follow the opening and the turnout register, call voters drawn at random, recount the ballot box at closing and sign a statement that is included in the official report.

Their full mission is described in the Observer's guide.

< Scrutin

Comme dans un bureau de vote : l'urne est montrée vide à l'ouverture, chaque votant figure sur la liste d'émargement, les observateurs peuvent appeler des votants tirés au sort, et l'urne anonyme est remise à chacun à la clôture pour un recomptage indépendant. Chaque étape est scellée par une empreinte et inscrite au journal d'audit.

Tirer au sort

Le tirage se fait parmi les électeurs qui ont voté. Appelez-les : chacun confirme qu'il a voté lui-même (et peut vérifier son reçu sur la page « Vérifier mon reçu »). Ne demandez jamais pour qui il a voté.

Monitoring the vote, as an observer sees it

8 Results and handover

The candidate with the most votes for a position is elected. If only one candidate stands for a position, they must get more than 50% of the voters for that position (R8); if not, the position is declared vacant and a new election is held within 30 days.

- Provisional results on 13 December; claims within 24 hours.
- Final results and handover on 15 December: the platform sets up the elected Bureau (accounts and roles).

10 The rules in force

The statutes of 18 December 2022 are in force. The urgent 2026 election rules (R0 to R9: elected positions, candidacy fees and conditions, age, card, single candidacy...) are submitted to the Extraordinary General Assembly, held in four sessions (Maadi, Faisal, Sheikh Zayed, Sakan Misr). This guide presents them as proposed; if one of them is not adopted, the Commission publishes the rule that applies and updates this guide.
